Sanohub Technologies Private Limited (hereafter referred to as "Sanohub"), develops and operates cloud based digital healthcare collaboration platform (supporting web and mobile applications for healthcare providers and care seekers) hereafter referred to as the "VitaCuro" platform. These Terms of Use are between Sanohub and its users who may be healthcare providers (hereafter referred to as "healthcare provider") or healthcare seekers(hereafter referred to as "healthcare seekers"), either of which shall hereafter be referred to as "you" or collectively as "users".

The VitaCuro platform supports the goal of continuous care for health by providing: For healthcare seekers, provides a free and self-owned PHR (personal health record), so that users can manage and track their personal health data securely online, in a way that allows them to (should they so choose) share this data with their various healthcare providers and caregivers, thus providing a centralized view of their overall health. The platform provides these capabilities to health seekers through its VitaCuro Health app (mobile and web versions). For healthcare providers, the platform provides a Virtual Practice (web and mobile application) that enables them to be securely accessible to their patients, through web and mobile services enabling online consultations and remote patient monitoring. The Virtual Practice for healthcare providers also supports essential practice management functions and an online presence management for better patient engagement. Usage of the Virtual Practice by healthcare providers is covered by a Virtual Practice for Healthcare Providers Terms agreement, in addition to these terms. Patients of healthcare providers using the Virtual Practice, can engage with their healthcare provider through the patient portal of the Virtual Practice and also through the VitaCuro Health application.

Usage of the VitaCuro platform and its supported applications are subject to acceptance of these Terms of Use. These Terms of Use are deemed to include the Privacy Policy, all conditions, policies and operating procedures that are referred to herein or which may otherwise be published by Sanohub from time to time, on the website and in any of the VitaCuro platform apps.

If you do not agree to these Terms of Use and/or are not eligible or authorized to agree to these Terms of use, then you may not register for any user account on the VitaCuro platform and are not authorized to use any of the applications or services supported by Sanohub's VitaCuro platform. By registering for a user account, downloading any of our apps or accessing or using any part of our services, you are deemed to be accepting these Terms of Use and are legally bound by all terms in this Terms of Use agreement.

1. Registration

You may access the VitaCuro website and download our apps by registering, using any of our apps whether as a healthcare provider or as a healthcare seeker. Downloading of the apps requires registration with acceptance of Terms of Use and all associated policies.

By registering, you agree that:

- a. You are above 18 years of age.
- b. You are not impersonating any other person and are using your actual identity. The personal information provided during the registration process is true, accurate, current and complete. For example, you may be required to provide your full name, email address, mobile phone number, location, date of birth, address and preferences.
- c. You are required to periodically review and update your registration data to ensure that it is always current and correct.
- d. Your username and password are unique to you, and you agree not to disclose or share your username and password to or with any third party. You are responsible for keeping your password confidential and for notifying us immediately if your password security is compromised.
- e. You also agree that you will be solely responsible for any activities conducted on or through VitaCuro and Sanohub with your account regardless of whether or not you are the individual who undertakes such activities. This includes any unauthorized access and/or use of your account or your computer. You hereby release and hold harmless Sanohub from any and all claims and causes of action arising out of or resulting from a third party's unauthorized use of your account.

Sanohub reserves the right to deny or revoke access to Sanohub and VitaCuro or any part thereof to anyone, at any time in its sole discretion, with or without cause.

You are responsible for all activities that occur in your account and you agree to notify Sanohub/VitaCuro immediately of any unauthorised use of your account. Sanohub/VitaCuro is in no way responsible for any loss that you may incur as a result of any unauthorised use of your user account and password.

Sanohub and the VitaCuro platform does not provide medical services of any nature. The VitaCuro platform and its apps are intended only as tools, which helps healthcare providers and their careseekers to collaborate in the healthcare of the patients, using scheduling, communication, coordination, reporting and data managing capabilities.

If you are a healthcare provider you shall not register and use Sanohub's VitaCuro solution unless you are a licensed medical practitioner. You shall not use the VitaCuro for any purpose other than providing services to patients seeking your services; The user account used to register for a VitaCuro is considered as the primary VitaCuro account owner.

All healthcare providers users are bound by the VitaCuro for Healthcare Providers Terms agreement.

The VitaCuro primary account owner is solely responsible for deciding which healthcare provider user accounts can be added to the VitaCuro based on eligibility criteria defined by primary account owner and to define the scope of services that they are allowed to provide and also to define their information access privileges.

All engagement between a health careseeker and a healthcare provider on the VitaCuro platform are governed by the Patient Terms accepted at the a time of the healthcare care seeker's registration as a patient with the healthcare provider's VitaCuro. Patients added directly by a healthcare provider to their VitaCuro, will be required to confirm their registration by the healthcare provider.

Healthcare providers on VitaCuro will be able to access a health careseeker's Personal Health Record on the VitaCuro platform, only if the user is a registered careseeker of the healthcare provider's VitaCuro.

As health careseeker you shall not use any service or information on VitaCuro for any purposes other than managing your personal health information or that of your immediate family members (with their authorization where necessary) and/or to engage with healthcare providers with whom you have registered with as a patient for genuine healthcare requirements only.

Your use and access of the VitaCuro platform, its apps and services, is entirely at your own initiative and risk. You are solely responsible for compliance with local laws in your respective country with regard to the use of such services. Sanohub does not claim that the VitaCuro platform is fully compliant for use within all the countries and territories from where it may be accessed.

From time to time, some of our users do provide us with feedback on recommended changes and/or corrections to our platform and apps. Such recommendations are sometimes accepted if they fit in with our overall product roadmap. If you provide such feedback, you warrant that it not include any person or entity's proprietary information. You also fully agree that Sanohub is not obliged to use or act on this feedback and even if does, it has full, royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable, transferable and global license to use this feedback.

2. Platform and Application Usage Rules

While using Sanohub's VitaCuro platform, its application, information and services, you agree and acknowledge that:

As a healthcare provider:

You shall not use your VitaCuro and any other services of the VitaCuro platform for any purpose other than providing services to patients seeking your services

Sanohub VitaCuro services can be used only by licensed medical practitioners and medical establishments (with licensed medical practitioners) with the necessary licences and approvals to provide healthcare services to patients. It is the sole responsibility of the healthcare Providers to ensure that they are in possession of the necessary licences required for all the services that they provide & that the necessary healthcare personnel and resources required to support such services are available.

You take complete and sole responsibility in assigning healthcare provider user accounts in your VitaCuro to qualified healthcare professionals and you take complete responsibility in training them in the correct usage of the application and its features to provide services to patients of your VitaCuro .

You shall maintain strict confidentiality of your patient data and not publish or distribute in any form, any information contained therein, and/or summaries or subsets thereof to any person or entity.

You will be responsible for all the activities under your service account and other dependent accounts ("associated accounts") of your employees. The VitaCuro platform serves only as a technology enabler for the online healthcare services that you choose to provide. Any disputes between you and the patients will be dealt with by you directly. You shall have separate Patient Terms agreements with the Patients in your Practice and Sanohub will not be a party to such agreements. You agree to absolve Sanohub of all/any claims between you and your patients and/or end users. You are responsible for keeping the confidentiality of all information provided by the patient. Sanohub has no obligation or liability to monitor services within VitaCuro.

Sanohub takes no responsibility for healthcare information that may be published by healthcare providers in their own VitaCuro. Healthcare providers are completely liable to ensure that such content is medically correct, original and that it causes no intended or unintended harm to its readers. All content you post shall not violate any law, or in any manner infringe or interfere with the rights of others or libel, defame any third party or is obscene or harmful/threatening/ abusive/vulgar/ inaccurate/racially, sexually, ethnically or are otherwise objectionable or constitute personal attacks on other individuals or infringe the intellectual property, trade secret or proprietary rights of any third party or promote criminal or other illegal activity.

If found illegal, offensive, or commercial in nature, infringing or inappropriate by the sole discretion of Sanohub, Sanohub retains the right to review and delete any content related to any provider, if such content is brought to Sanohub's notice. Sanohub takes no responsibility in having to review content published in VitaCuro. Besides, Sanohub reserves the right to block the user account.

As a healthcare careseeker :

You shall not use any service or information on the VitaCuro platform and its apps for any purposes other than managing your personal health information or that of your immediate family members (with due authorization) and/or to engage with healthcare providers that you have chosen to consult with for genuine healthcare requirements only.

As a healthcare consumer you understand that Sanohub and its VitaCuro platform do not provide medical services of any kind and only enable your engagement with healthcare providers that you have chosen to consult with. Sanohub does not recommend or endorse any healthcare providers. Healthcare consumer users are solely responsible for making decisions on their choice of health providers.

Your access or use of Sanohub's VitaCuro platform apps and services does not create in any way, a relationship that may be confidential or privileged or of any kind that would obligate Sanohub, to fulfil any duties towards meeting your health needs.

You are expected to avail of immediate professional medical attention in medical emergencies or critical care situations and not attempt to use the VitaCuro platform and its apps in such situations. The services enabled by the VitaCuro platform and its applications is only meant to supplement your existing healthcare services and to enable you to collaborate and coordinate better with your own healthcare providers, as decided by them.

The accuracy, integrity and completeness of the personal health information you enter or allow to enter on your behalf is your responsibility, and Sanohub assumes no liability for it. Sanohub is also not liable for any use or misuse of information transmitted or received by a healthcare provider whom you have authorized to access or use your account and data on the VitaCuro platform and its apps.

Your use of this platform to engage with your healthcare providers is at your sole risk only. Sanohub shall not be responsible for any undesirable outcomes in your engagement with healthcare providers. Sanohub does not endorse, recommend or otherwise promote any healthcare providers.

Sanohub shall not be responsible for ensuring that the health, fitness or nutritional information on this site or in its services will always include the most recent findings or developments in medical research.

Data in your personal health records will be accessible only to your authorised healthcare providers that you are a registered patient of, for the purpose of providing you with healthcare services that you choose.

Non- personalised system analysis of non-identifiable patient data may be done as part of application service development to enable better healthcare outcomes. However, the identity of individual users will remain completely anonymous in such analysis.

By using the services of Sanohub and VitaCuro, you unconditionally agree to receive certain essential automated SMS, mobile and email notifications relevant to system events from the VitaCuro platform apps to the mobile number and email address you provided during registration, irrespective of whether you have subscribed to any Do-Not-Disturb (DND) services. Notification preference settings will be provided to allow turning off of non-essential/informative-only notifications.

Sanohub is constantly updating the VitaCuro platform and apps in order to provide the best possible experience for its users. The users acknowledge and agree that the form and nature of the services provided by the platform may change from time to time, features may be added, improved or changed without prior notice as per the demands of changing technology, domain and the best interests of the users.

You shall not use the VitaCuro platform and its apps and services for any purposes other than those intended by Sanohub and as determined by Sanohub at its sole discretion. The VitaCuro platform is only a means for Healthcare Providers and their careseekers to interact and to have a channel for users to avail services offered by providers in the area of health management. There is no employment (part time or full time), consulting, contractor, joint venture or agency relationship between Sanohub and the users or Healthcare Providers. You may not use any robot, spider, scraper or other automated means to access the Site or Services for any purpose without our written permission. Violation of this policy may result in termination of your access to the site, deactivation or deletion of your registration and all related information and files you have stored on the site.

Sanohub reserves the right to modify and/or discontinue its services at any time, for any reason and without notice and to terminate your password and account for any reason, including violation of this agreement. On such termination, you shall have no more claims on your personal data stored on VitaCuro. Sanohub will not be responsible for providing this data in any form to you or to any third party service provider after such termination.

You shall not misuse any services or information on Sanohub and VitaCuro, in which event, Sanohub may take legal, technical and financial remedies to prevent the violation of this provision and to enforce these Terms of Service.

You shall not attempt to circumvent any security measure put in place for the VitaCuro platform users or attempt to gain unauthorized access to any services, user accounts, or computer systems or networks owned and/or controlled by Sanohub, through hacking, password mining or any other means.

You shall not upload or submit any data or information containing viruses or any computer code, corrupt files or programs engineered or intended to disrupt or destroy the functionality of any software, hardware, telecommunications, networks, servers or other equipment.

You shall not attempt to access, access or obtain information regarding any account other than your own, by any means whatsoever. You may not use the VitaCuro platform and its apps and services in any manner that could damage, disable, overload, or impair our servers or networks, or interfere with any other party's use and enjoyment of the site and services.

You shall take utmost care to ensure confidentiality of your username and password and are liable for any misuse of your account.

The users acknowledge and agree that Sanohub may, as part of continuing innovation, stop (permanently or temporarily) providing the VitaCuro platform, apps and services (or any features within) at Sanohub's sole discretion, without prior notice. In case Sanohub becomes involved in a merger, acquisition, or any form of sale of some or all of its assets, Sanohub reserves the right to re-brand or relocate the Services. If you are a competitor service, you shall not use this service as a user to study and copy features and services provided by Sanohub's VitaCuro platform, apps and services.

Any information posted on Sanohub or VitaCuro, including personally identifiable information contained therein, are made voluntarily and are subject to Sanohub's Privacy Policy. You are responsible for the information you post and agree to defend (at your sole expense), indemnify and hold Sanohub harmless from any damages, losses, costs, or expenses which Sanohub may incur as a result of information you post.

3. Data

The VitaCuro platform securely stores all data, including Personal Health Information (PHI) data, communications, usage data including but not limited to location, device type, operating system, browser, date-time and context usage, in Secured cloud infrastructure. All data storage and transmissions are encrypted.

By using the VitaCuro platform, as a healthcare careseeker you authorize the copying, transfer and disclosure of your health data to healthcare providers that you specifically choose to engage with and with whom you have registered as a healthcare careseeker/patient. Your authorized healthcare providers have access to view and update your healthcare data in the course of providing you with healthcare services through their VitaCuro credentials.

By using the VitaCuro platform, as a healthcare provider you authorize the ownership of patient health data by your registered patients, such that they may view and update their own health data, except for specific areas that you choose not to make visible/accessible to them. By using the VitaCuro platform, all users authorize Sanohub to perform anonymized analytical procedures on all platform data, in a manner that does not disclose or utilize the identify of any user, to develop Analytics with non-identifiable data, to thus be able to improve and extend the VitaCuro platform services based on such Analytics. As a user you also authorize Sanohub to publish such non-identifiable Analytics derived from non-identifiable platform user data to promote the VitaCuro platform and it's use in enabling continuity of healthcare for healthcare providers and their patients.

By using the VitaCuro platform you agree to storage of your data in secure cloud infrastructure located anywhere in the world. Sanohub currently uses Amazon Web services infrastructure based in North America.

All user data is covered by the VitaCuro platform's Privacy Policy.

Healthcare care seekers can register on the VitaCuro platform and use the VitaCuro or Health app, to maintain and track their health data. As Sanohub does not provide healthcare services of any nature, all users must be clear that it does not charge healthcare consumers for such services. Sanohub currently provides free storage for healthcare consumer data but also reserves the right to start charging at cost, for data storage above a certain limit. Any change to our current storage services offering will be notified by email to all healthcare consumer users. For clarifications please contact support@vitacuro.com.

4. Cancellation and Refund Policy

The Teleconsultation services use third party online payment gateway for paying consultation fee for appointment confirmation as prescribed by Healthcare provider
